AND EUROPEAN AFFAIRS OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC

CULTURAL SECTION

Support of the Education of Young People in the Cultural Field within the European Union

The Cultural Section of the Model Conference of the Faculty of International Relations 2019 deals with current problems and issues related to the cultural heritage within the European Union. The aim of the negotiations in the Cultural Section is to find a way how to deal with up-to-date problems related to the support of the education of young people in the cultural field within the European Union. The next goal of the negotiations in the Cultural Section is to compare different approaches of European countries. Representatives of 6 selected countries – Germany, France, Slovenia, Italy, Slovakia and Denmark – will negotiate 4 core areas of cultural heritage: material cultural heritage, immaterial cultural heritage, digital cultural heritage and natural cultural heritage.

Moderator: Katarína Poláková

SPEAKERS:

Zuzana Duchová – Coordinator of Creative Europe Desk Slovakia

Zuzana Duchová is a curator and cultural manager. Her areas of interest are site-specific art, national stereotypes, urban life, tourism, visual studies and hardware jewellery design.

Ms. Duchová graduated in art history at the Comenius University, Bratislava, and holds a PhD in the urban planning from the Slovak Technical University, Bratislava.

Jozef Kovalčík – Director of the Slovak Arts Council.

Jozef Kovalčík is a director of the Slovak Arts Council. Mr. Kovalčík is a philosopher, aesthetist and pedagogue. He worked at the Academy of Fine Arts in Prague as a teacher and a researcher and a vice-rector for education. Mr. Kovalčík is professionally engaged in the issue of the relationship between high and popular culture, design theory and education in art schools.

SECURITY SECTION

Cyber Security and Cooperation in Europe

The Security Section of the Model Conference of the Faculty of International Relations deals with cyber security within members of the OSCE. One of the main roles is to establish a common platform, which will help and deepen common cooperation between certain member states of the OSCE. This platform will strengthen cyber security in the context of the Common Security and Defense Policy. Active members within security section are following: the Republic of Estonia, the French Republic, the Netherlands, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Republic of Austria, the Russian Federation, the Slovak Republic and the Italian Republic.

Moderator: Martin Natafaluši

SPEAKERS:

Rasa Ostrauskaite - OSCE Coordinator of Activities to Address Transnational Threats

Having joined the OSCE in 2009, Mrs. Ostrauskaite served as a Deputy Director for the Policy Support Service at the OSCE's Conflict Prevention Centre. Previously she had been working in various capacities at the European Union. She holds a Master degree in International Relations and European Studies and a Master of Philosophy in Political Science, both from the Central European University.

Martin Vereš - Head of Information and Cyber Security at the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Slovak Republic

Mr. Martin Vereš is the Head of Information and Cyber Security at the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Slovak Republic. As this year is the Slovak Chairmanship of the OSCE, he is involved in questions regarding cyber security, rapid technological change, digitalization and innovation. Before his current position he acted as Officer in the Department for Security, Archives and Registries.
